Musica viva—We will be travelling to Dunoon Hall to watch Sounds Baroque perform on Wednesday 17 November. Please see attached permission note and return to school before Tuesday 16 November. Everyone should be well on the way to preparing their outfits for the day. Ms Jodie is really looking forward to seeing what everyone has dressed as. ### Musica Viva Wednesday 17 November 2010

Information to Parents / Guardians

There will be a performance at the school (Dunoon Hall) by the Musica Viva In Schools group
Sounds Baroque

Sounds Baroque presents Propero's Island, a musical drama for young people based on Shakespeare's The Tempest. This magical musical tale of shipwrecks, pirates and adventure combines the language and humour of today with the iconic music and instruments from 17th century England, producing an opera that's accessible to students of all ages.

The performance will be held on Wednesday 17th November at 9.30am at The Dunoon Hall. The cost of the performance is $4.50/child. Students will travel by bus at a cost of $3.50/child.

Total cost $8.00/child.

This performance is part of your school's music education program and builds on preparatory work done in the classroom. We would be delighted if you could come to the performance. There is no charge for parents/guardians and community members. Third and subsequent children from the same family can attend free of charge.

Students are asked to "dress up" for the performance in an outfit reflecting the time period "Baroque" as previously discussed in class—prizes for the best outfit will be awarded on the day.

Music Teacher
