Hi everyone,

What a fab day at The Channon Markets on Sunday! The weather was perfect and it was the best fundraising day we have had. The total profit raised was just over $2300. Thank you to everyone who helped to make the day a success- from cooking cakes for the day to volunteering time on the stall and the gates.

Friday was also a lovely day for the Riverview Athletics Carnival. Congratulations to all students for their efforts on the day.

Today is the Tuntable Tigers Olympic Games. Miss Jodie is at the Infantry day today and Mrs Lord is here to get the Olympics underway. The students planned the events, flags and torch. I wonder if the Olympic Games would like to add another event- sock wrestling – to the agenda!

I have had a few return slips for the student-led conferences. These will be held in a couple of weeks' time- once we get through the Performing Arts Festival. (Tickets went on sale yesterday for seats to the performances.)

Yesterday we started looking at family trees. It was quite interesting for everyone to hear how far back students were able to go back- we had a great discussion around this and what it would have been like back then. We also had a think around what our ancestors would think about the technology we use today or how we travel around.

NAPLAN results have been released. I'm still waiting for the parent letters to send out, however, from looking at the results on-line, I'm very pleased with our students' progress. Well done Year 3 and 5.
