

Principal News - Ms Laura Cromptvoets

What a busy and excellent end to the term we have had! On Monday we said goodbye to our lovely Mrs Bennett. We wish her all the best as she embarks on her exciting new journey to Tasmania. The students enjoyed their excursion into Lismore to see Toy Story 4 with their Corndale Public School friends and a trip to the library. The students represented Tunable Creek with pride and it was a pleasure to take them on the excursion. The highlights included getting popcorn at the movies and going on a treasure hunt in the library.

I would like to thank again all the staff, students and families for a fantastic semester. I wish Mrs Bath all the best as she returns to school next term.

School resumes on Tuesday July 23rd.

Farwell

The Channon Extravaganza

Tomorrow Friday the 5th July 2019 we will be attending The Channon Extravaganza at The Channon School. This should be a wonderful day for all the students where they will be attending these events with peers from across the small schools. The first event will be Musica Viva which will be held at The Channon Hall commencing at 10am. The school bus will be collecting students from The Channon School at 2.15pm for their normal bus run home. Parents picking up student will be required to pick them up from The Channon School by this time. If you are taking your child/ren early please let Ms Cromptvoets know.

Tunable Creek Public School Library and Cinema Excursion

Yesterday Tuntable Creek Public School went to see Toy Story 4 at the cinema. First of all who came teachers Darren, Miss Cromptvoets and Ellie. The children Ava, Sapphire, Skye, Hailey, Cassidy and me obviously. So we got on the bus at school then we started our journey to Lismore. We started singing Beep, Beep I'm a Sheep and then we sang Baby Shark.

When we got into the cinema we went and sat on the little couches for a while. Then we went and got our popcorn and delicious cold drink. It was as cold as a winter morning.

Then we went into the cinema. A funny part of the movie was when Bonnie went to Kindergarten for the first time and made a fork with eyes, arms, legs and mouth. She loved it. It was made out of trash so it liked trash. It kept on rolling off the bed into the trash can. Later they went on a road trip and Forkie jumped out of the window screaming "I'm Litter". Woody jumped out of the window. Woody carried Forkie until they found Bonnie. Woody was talking to Forkie saying that Bonnie needed him. Forkie jumped up and said "I'm Bonnie's Trash she needs me!" Later on in the movie Dolly said, "What is it with everyone jumping out of this window?"

Then we went to the library and made an origami shark that you can put on the corner of a book. I did a scavenger hunt and then read a book for a while.

It was fun.

Toy Story 4 and the Lismore Library

On Wednesday Ava, Hailey, Artie, Sapphire, Cassidy and I went to the cinemas to watch Toy Story 4. Before we left we ate choc chip waffles, ice cream and fruit. It was really good.

Then we went to the cinemas. It was really funny when Forkie kept saying "I'm trash" and jumping into the bin. After the movie we went to the library. We did a scavenger hunt then we made sharks and then we read books. It was really fun.

Toy Story 4 and Lismore Library

Yesterday Tuntable Creek Public School (AKA Skye, Artie, Hailey, Sapphire, Cassidy, Ellie, Darren, Miss Crompvotes and I), had waffles and ice-cream. On that we had Maple syrup and straw berries, it was delisheoso!

When we finished that we got on the bus and every one broke out into song, singing "Beep! Beep! I'm a sheep! Say Beep! Beep! I'm a Sheep!" I think the teacher are scarred for life (on the inside!).

We got off the bus and sat outside the cinema for let`s say 20 minutes or so sitting like a tiger ready to pounce on its prey or in this case the cinema seats, waiting for Corndale to show up. When they did we sat on the black lounges watching the trailers for movies, waiting for Ellie to call us up to get popcorn and drinks.

When the ads started I was rationing my popcorn waiting and waiting, wanting to just gobble up my popcorn when the first scene appears like magic before our eyes. My slushie was as cold as one of those not frozen but still a bit frozen and cold homemade ice-blocks.

The movie was AMAZING! (Don't worry I won't spoil anything☺) I had tears welling in my eyes. That's only happened twice before in movies, once while watching Coralline when I was like three, (OMG! It was so scary! ☹) and end game, (I'm a not spoil that either. But I will say it was very sad). So that's saying something.

After the movie we went to Lismore library and we made an origami shark Book mark. We also had a picture scavenger hunt, I was lie a NINJA! Looking place to place like I was in one of those spy movies. I was also first to finish and I chose a badge with an octopus (with 6 legs, I have no idea why) reading books and two little sketchy ones out to the side of him or her. There was this car with pillows in it, Skye and I pretended to drive in it (it was a light squeeze). Hailey also introduced me to this book in reading time called 'Chibi Vampire'.

Excursion Reflection

Yesterday the school went to an excursion but before we went we had to have breakfast. As I clenched the silver spoon in my hand I lunged at the choc chip waffle. It was a hard fight but I was victorious. Then we were given more waffles and ice cream as cold as a snowy mountain.

After that victory we hopped on the chariot [bus] as the chariot driver [Brett] steered the golden stallion to our next battle [Toy Story].when we got there we had to wait a while but at least we had comfy couches and 4 tvs showing us a trailer for our next battle. We were handed popcorn and ice cold drinks we were prepared. Well I ate all the popcorn before the movie even started.

I was wounded by toy story I couldn't feel my legs but it wore of in minutes. We were tired from everything we did that day so we went to the library where there was a book that was so good it could have been written by Sophocles himself on the way back we sang battle chants. But alas I must leave and go back in time it was fun writing for Cassidy so bye.

My Spectacular End of Term Celebration

The big event was awaiting us but first things first was BREAKFAST! We had a mouth-watering delicacy on Wednesday the 3rd of July. The waffles were warm and crunchy, the ice-cream was cold and creamy, the fruit had that nice fresh taste and the maple syrup was golden and sweet. It was a delicious start to the day.

We collected all our belongings and started the impatient wait for the bus. When it arrived we were all so excited we forgot where the teachers asked us to wait. We rushed onto the bus and listened for the sound of the engine and once we heard it we didn't hesitate and off our mouth muscles went, working like a squirrel that just drank coffee.

We pulled up at the Cinema and we all flooded out of the bus. But there was just one problem..... we were early (better than late I guess.) For us this meant waiting outside for 20 minutes! It felt like 3 hours! When it finally opened we all jumped off our seats and ran to the doors.

Once we were in, our tickets were paid for and now what drink to get to go with our popcorn was the question. Ava and I got the same (a slushie, coca cola and raspberry Fanta combo,) but I think pretty much everyone copied us. We sat down trying to resist the temptations of our buttery popcorn and our flavour-some drinks. It was finally time and we practically skipped down our path to the comfort of the warm cinema chairs. We sat down and waited for the adds and the trailers. Ava and I were sitting next to each other so naturally we were going to talk. 😊 We both want to see a movie called abdominal because the trailer was really funny. Toy story 4 was really good, sad and funny but I won't put any spoilers in this, that way anyone can read it!

After the movie finished we made our way down to the library on foot. We had lunch and then we went inside. Michael (our instructor) set up a hunt for us and we had to find pictures with the clues we had. Next thing we did was create an origami shark bookmark. Then we got to read and I read a manga (I have been looking for it for ages) while sitting in an old fireplace. It was awesome.

Yours sincerely

Hailey
