Hi everyone,

The day of love today- Valentines Day. However, I think that is a great reminder about caring about others.

What is love? This is the question I put forward to students this morning. Yes, we got the giggles and mushy kisses answers.

We explored how Valentines Day came about, then talked about love being a verb and what love is.

Love is patient, love is kind. It does not envy, it does not boast, it is not proud. It does not dishonor others, it is not self-seeking, it is not easily angered, it keeps no record of wrongs.

Scripture

Scripture lessons begin tomorrow.

Library and Art/Craft

Mrs Luce is connecting our school history with her library lessons. Last week, students created a collage of the school when it started in 1909 further down Tuntable Creek Road and when it was moved to its current position. At our Centenary Celebrations this year, we will begin our day at the original site, acknowledging the first teachers and students, before moving up to the site to continue celebrations.

Notes will be sent home today too for any unreturned library books from last year.

Miss Jodie will be away over the next two weeks. Mrs Cantrell and I will hold down the fort while she is away. Safe travels Miss Jodie.

Regards
Alison Bath
Principal
